

Key Messages

From the

Local Government Volunteer Managers Network Meeting

Wednesday 11 February 2015

1. Local Government Volunteer Managers Network (LGVMN) Executive Team 1 January 2015 – 31 December 2016

Chair	Ngareta Cronin, Rural City of Murray Bridge n.cronin@murraybridge.sa.gov.au
Vice Chair	Mike Feszczak, City of Onkaparinga micfes@onkaparinga.sa.gov.au
Secretary	Vanita Holt, City of Marion
Membership Secretary	Melaina Tate, City of Tea Tree Gully
Minutes	Anne Ellis, Adelaide Hills Council
Executive member	Roxanne Withers, City of Playford
Executive member	Karen Jenkinson, Adelaide City Council

2. 2015 LGMA (SA) Award of Excellence Nominations

We are thrilled that two of our Local Government Volunteer Managers Network members have nominations in the 2015 LGMA (SA) Awards of Excellence:

- Michelle Hodshon, City of Salisbury, 'Volunteer Workforce Health and Safety Training Framework – a guide for South Australian Local Government'
- Roxanne Withers, City of Playford, 'Be Active, Birds, Bats and Biodiversity Program'

3. Better Impact Account for LGVMN

The LGVMN Better Impact Working Group, with the assistance of Andy Fryer from Better Impact, has established a dedicated account within Better Impact (BI) for the LGVMN. This account will allow email communication between all members of the Network, up to date membership details and information, collation and storage of documents, templates and meeting minutes. The BI Account is accessible to all network members irrespective of their involvement with BI product and will be maintained by the LGVMN Membership Secretary.

4. 2015 National Volunteer Week – VSA&NT march through Adelaide

The LGVMN will support the Volunteering SA&NT 2015 National Volunteer Week march through Adelaide on Monday 11 May. LGVMN members will encourage Council Volunteers and program coordinators/supervisors to join them in the fun and all march together to represent Local Government volunteering in South Australia.