

Local Government Women's MINI CONFERENCE No.2

Friday 25 October 2013

Tea Tree Gully Council Civic Centre,
571 Montague Road, Modbury

2pm to 5pm:

■ Workshop 1

Lesley Purdom (former Mayor of Tea Tree Gully):

Achieving the next level & how to come back after an election defeat (includes opportunity for discussion & questions).

■ Workshop 2

Felice D'Agostino and Trevor Gormley (Normans Lawyers):

Part 1: How the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC)
may affect you.

Part 2: You and Your Code of Conduct

(Both sessions include opportunity for discussion & questions.)

5:00pm-5:30 pm:

- Pre-dinner champagne on the balcony at sunset

5:30 pm – 6:00pm

- Annual General Meeting of ALGWA SA Branch Inc

6:00pm- 9:30pm:

- 2 course Dinner, Drinks, Prizes, Entertainment +
Grace Benny Award Presentations

Cost per person:

Workshop only including afternoon tea: $30 (ALGWA SA member = $25)

or Dinner + Drinks: $45 (ALGWA SA Member= $40)

or Workshop + Dinner + Drinks: $75 (ALGWA SA Member = $65)

Bookings essential. (Payment: Councils invoiced or pay at the door.)

Register on algwa.sa.rsvps@gmail.com (deadline:22 Oct 2013).

For more information, phone Cr. Betty Gill on 0417 868 283.

*"Invitation to women & men elected to or working in local government as well as to potential candidates in local government 2014
elections"*

Australian Local Government
Women's Association
South Australian Branch Inc

thanks

Norman Waterhouse
LAWYERS

CITY OF TEA TREE GULLY
Naturally Better