Bundles offer a quick easy way to manage membership across your council.

Our bundles are designed to provide an easy and convenient way to manage LG Professionals, SA membership across your council. They can also simplify your annual professional development budget allocation whilst providing additional savings when non-members register for events, programs and professional development courses.

If you are looking for a way to recognise and reward your staff, provide state-wide networking and save money on professional development, then our bundles are perfect for your council.

With these bundles you are able to offer to your staff:

Member benefits

- Membership for your existing and aspiring leaders, providing them with the opportunity to be part of their professional association with ready access to our networks, programs and events.
- Free membership provided for HR Managers – so your council stays connected.
- Networking opportunities – connect and share with others in the sector through our network meetings, events and activities.
- Access to members rates for events and professional development workshops which are 2 days or less (note: this does not apply to the Management Challenge which is a nationally run event).
- Discounted rates to join the Qantas Club through the LG Professionals Australia National Corporate Scheme
- Save $145 on joining fee and $90 on membership.
- Members only communications and offers.

Council wide benefits

- Tickets to our annual conference which is informed by and designed specifically for local government.
- Tickets to the Annual Leadership Excellence Gala Awards Dinner where staff can be inspired by the great work that SA councils are doing.
- Access to council bundle rates for events and professional development workshops of 2 days or less (note: excludes Management Challenge which is a nationally run event).
