

Opportunity to Innovate: Exploring the Former RAH Site

Innovation | Change Series

WHEN: Wednesday, 13 June 2018

TIME: 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

WHERE: Former Royal Adelaide Hospital Site
North Terrace, Adelaide

Includes drinks and nibbles

Aims

To explore:

- The importance of partnerships
- Reframe challenges into opportunities
- Strengthen networks with peers
- Make time to think

Join us for a tour and conversation with
Georgina Vasilevski, General Manager People & Place, Renewal SA.

The former Royal Adelaide Hospital site presents a once-in-a-century opportunity to create high-value jobs and industries that will secure the future for generations of South Australians to come.

Close partnerships between private sector industry, universities, and other research organisations will enable the co-creation of the workforce and enterprises of the future.

The inner-city location will attract entrepreneurial communities from all over the world who will excel in an environment where they are located adjacent to businesses operating in the city, entwined with cutting edge research located in the universities, beside the vibrant laneways and East End and integrated with some of the best gardens in the world.
